The Centennials: Celebrating the Birth Year 1926
Jerry Lewis: The Nutty Professor
Thursday, February 19 at 2:30 pm
NR, 107 minutes, 1963, Comedy,
Science Fiction

Julius Kelp is a college professor with a problem. Clumsy, awkward, inarticulate, and unattractive, Julius is a hopeless case when it comes to women -- but he's desperate to impress beautiful student Stella. Fortunately, he does know something about chemistry and decides to concoct a potion that will turn him into a whole new man. In this classic comedy, Julius' suave alter ego, Buddy Love, must win Stella's affections before his short-lived potion runs out.

CAST: Jerry Lewis, Stella Stevens, Kathleen Freeman, Del Moore, Howard Morris, Elvia Allman, Julie Parrish, Henry Gibson, Milton Frome, Buddy Lester

Ray
Black History Month
Tuesday, February 24 at 2:30 pm
PG-13 for drug use and sexuality, 2004 152 minutes, Musical Biography

Based on the true life story of legendary rhythm and blues singer Ray Charles, Ray begins by showing the humble beginnings from which the musician came. Born into a poor family in Florida, Ray went blind at the age of seven. Despite his handicap, his mother pushed him hard to use his enormous talents and hone his skill as a musician. He used his musical ability to become one of the most popular artists of his day, though the fast-paced lifestyle that came with his fame also came with some serious consequences for him.
CAST: Jamie Foxx, Kerry Washington, Regina King, Harry Lennix, Clifton Powell, Bokeem Woodbine, Sharon Warren, C.J. Sanders, Curtis Armstrong, Richard Schiff
